HONORS DAY CONVOCATION

*G*reetings,

As another academic year draws to an end, we would like to take this opportunity to honor the most important part of our prestigious history, our students. Their dedication, determination, and will to succeed are quite remarkable. On this day of celebration, our campus community extends the warmest of welcomes to families and friends of our honored students and to the faithful alumni who have joined us. The ties which bind us to each other are strong. As we honor our students, we also remember and celebrate those whose commitment and vision have shaped Shelton State into the dynamic institution that it is today. I would also like to thank our faculty and staff who are outstanding in every way.

Each of the students being honored today will proudly display a medallion with the newly created Shelton State seal. While the design of the seal is new, the attributes that it stands for are not.

Academic Excellence, Career and Technical Achievement, Community Service.

Using these ideals as a guide to navigate through our ever-changing world will serve us well as we continue to educate West Alabama and strive to become one of the top community colleges in America. We hope that our students have seen these qualities exhibited in us during their time here and will hold fast to the ideals of excellence, achievement and service throughout their lives.

Congratulations, honored students, and sincere best wishes for success in your future endeavors. This is your special day!
